

“Stop right there!”

The entire office lobby immediately fell silent for a moment after Zhang Zheng-Fu shouted.

Wang Xing-Duo’s team stopped what they were doing and looked towards the front.

Wang Xing-Duo frowned too. “Who are you?”

“Why, are you going to obstruct me from carrying out my duties? You’re probably some low ranking employee, right? If you block us from doing our job for the sake of a tiny company like this, you’d better consider the consequences first. Otherwise what you do today might be the end of your future!” warned Wang Xing-Duo coldly as he looked at the young man who had suddenly appeared out of nowhere.

But Zhang Zheng-Fu just smiled at Wang Xing-Duo’s words. “Manager Wang, you don’t have to worry about my future. My dad will help to pave the way for me.”

“I just hope that you could do me a favor here. That country bumpkin offended you, and that's his business, so it has nothing to do with Miss Qiu. Besides, Miss Qiu is already separated from that country bumpkin and will soon be divorced and they will have nothing to do with one another. So Manager Wang, why don't you just forget about sealing off the company? If you could do this favor for me, I will pay you a visit with my father, Zhang Xiao-Song, and bring great gifts to thank you personally."

Zhang Zheng-Fu had purposely emphasized on his father's name when he said these words.

Wang Xing-Duo immediately paused for a moment when he heard those three words and quietly repeated them, "Zhang Xiao-Song?"

Zhang Zheng-Fu was excited when he saw Wang Xing-Duo's reaction.

This was going to work after all.

His father wasn't the most influential among the entrepreneurs in Yunzhou, but he was fairly famous.

He wasn't just the head of a government enterprise, but he was also the financial star of Yunzhou this year!

While Wang Xing-Duo was just a manager and wasn't some bigwig.

So from Zhang Zheng-Fu's point of view, his father's name would be enough to keep Wang Xing-Duo in check.

And it looked like it was going exactly the way Zhang Zheng-Fu had expected!

Just after he had said his father's name, Wang Xing-Duo was stunned and stopped doing whatever he was doing.

"Hahaha, he really is a great entrepreneur and his name alone is already powerful. Mu-Cheng, look at Zheng-Fu. He's from a wealthy family but he's still so independent. He doesn't rely on his family, he's not complacent and he's come out to work from the bottom rung. That's what I call hardworking! Unlike some useless bum from the countryside who just spends his days lazing away and doesn't know how to improve himself at all. He can't compare to Zheng-Fu at all!"

"Mu-Cheng, I think this Zheng-Fu is really not bad, and he's quite talented too. Even though he's not as rich as Young Master Sun, but he's from the top tier of Yunzhou already. He's even willing to help you in such circumstances, so if you have such a man as your husband, you'd definitely live blissfully for the rest of your life."

"Mu-Cheng, you should interact more with Zheng-Fu from now on."

Han Li immediately had a smile on her face and breathed a long sigh of relief when she saw that Zhang Zheng-Fu had managed to stun Wang Xing-Duo.

The other company employees were also overjoyed when they saw this happening, and suddenly they all looked differently towards Zhang Zheng-Fu.

They were all admiring him and filled with respect for him. Many female employees even started falling for him.

"Manager Zhang is amazing!"

"It's all thanks to Manager Zhang! Otherwise our company would collapse, wouldn't it?"

Many employees were praising him and sounded like they were idolizing him.

Zhang Zheng-Fu felt like he was going to fly soon when he felt the passionate gazes from behind him. The corner of his lips curled upwards and the complacent smile on his handsome face became even more arrogant.

He stood there proudly and looked at Wang Xing-Duo as he continued, “Manager Wang, since you know my father, then do me a favor and do my father a favor too – stop here for today.”

“Also, help us with approving Mufan Real Estate’s application too. My father, Zhang Xiao-Song, and I, will always remember this favor you’ve done for us.”

Zhang Zheng-Fu said these words calmly, but that boastful tone of voice was very apparent.

But just after Zhang Zheng-Fu said these words, Wang Xing-Duo unexpectedly lifted a leg and kicked Zhang Zheng-Fu to the floor.

“Oh my...”

Everyone was confused.

Zhang Zheng-Fu clutched his stomach and was on the verge of tears. “Manager Wang, what are you doing?”

“What am I doing? Fuck you! Zhang Xiao-Song? Who the hell is that? I’ve never heard of this person and you’re trying to threaten me with him? You’re pretty young but you talk big! Who is going to do you a favor? Whatever for? You’re running an unlawful business and you dare to instruct me? Get lost!”

Wang Xing-Duo shouted at Zhang Zheng-Fu, then slapped him so hard that Zhang Zheng-Fu immediately shut up. His face was all red as he remained sprawled on the floor and didn’t dare to move at all.

Everyone was shocked at this.

Nobody expected that Wang Xing-Duo wouldn’t care about Zhang Xiao-Song’s son at all, and actually hit him.

“Seal off everything! Take all the documents, information, receipts, everything. Round up all the directors and we’re going to question them one by one.

If anybody else tries to be funny and blocks us from doing our job, arrest them for obstruction of public service. I'm going to see which blind idiot still dares to block us!"

Wang Xing-Duo was clearly furious.

Zhang Zheng-Fu had emphasized on Zhang Xiao-Song's name so arrogantly and the way he talked had really frightened Wang Xing-Duo at first and he really thought that this fellow might be the son of a big shot.

But after thinking about it for a long time, he couldn't recall who this Zhang Xiao-Song was at all.

He had never even heard of him before, so there was no way this Zhang Xiao-Song was some big shot.

So Wang Xing-Duo became even angrier, thinking that Zhang Zheng-Fu was trying to fool him. And that's why he kicked Zhang Zheng-Fu without hesitation.

After that, Wang Xing-Duo immediately told his team to seal off Mufan Real Estate.

Qiu Mu-Cheng and the rest of the staff were on the verge of despair.

Han Li was screaming and cursing at Ye Fan, blaming him for dragging her daughter down.

But Ye Fan continued to stand there without saying anything. Nobody noticed that Ye Fan's eyes were already as cold as ice. His presence was so icy that Lu Wen-Jing's face paled as she stood beside him.

"F-fan, what's wrong?"

Ye Fan didn't answer her. He just started walking towards Wang Xing-Duo.

He was like a swordsman who was going to draw his sword from its sheath and slay his enemy!

His ominous presence made a cold wind start to blow.

But just as Ye Fan was prepared to do something, another car parked outside the building.

A few men in suits came walking in.

Chapter 306 Is Master Ye Here?

“May I ask if Ye Fan, Master Ye, is here?”
Meng Guang and Liu walked in with great respect as they asked the crowd in front of them politely.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!