

Chapter 84

Everyone fell silent when they saw William open the car door.

This car belonged to William?

Everyone, including Felicity, looked at William in disbelief! William, on the other hand, remained indifferent.

How could this car belong to William?

How could he afford such an expensive car?

This was impossible!

At this moment, they felt their faces were fuming with shame, as if the reality had materialized as a huge hand and slapped in their faces.

They didn't see this coming!

How could common fellows like them read the mind of such a great man?

They stared at the car key in William's hand, and their eyes were bloodshot!

William's car key was real!

It was true that his car was parked in the underground parking lot!

He wasn't lying to them!

On the contrary, they had made a mockery and laughed at him a while ago!

Everyone felt embarrassed. There was a moment of awkwardness that hung in the air.

William pulled Felicity to motion her to get in the car with him.

At this time, Steven had finally come to his senses. He immediately rushed up to them and cursed, "Where did you steal this car? Security! Security! Arrest him! He is a car thief!"

Steven's groundless accusation irritated Felicity.

She was in a bad mood this evening.

Besides what happened a while ago, Steven had been jeering at her earlier as well. The rage in her was going to overflow.

William obviously had shown mercy and did not want to hold Steven accountable, but she could not believe that Steven refused to let go of William!

Did they think that they could push around her dear William as per their wish?

A strong dissatisfaction filled her heart and spread across her four limbs.

She could not figure out where William got this car. And yes, she was still angry with William.

But at this moment, she decided to stand with William. She retorted coldly, "This is my car. Are you going to let us go now?"

Her answer made the whole place fall into silence!

This car belonged to Felicity?

Their eyes flew up in shock and their mouths were left open.

"Where did you get this car from? You don't have that much money! Well, how dare you rip off the company's money to buy a luxurious car? You're digging your own grave!" Steven yelled fiercely.

Felicity sneered and rebuked, "What's wrong with that? Why can't I do it when you also embezzle the money from the company? Why the double standards? You must be born a hypocrite!"

Her words made Steven's face turn pallid!

This woman!

Yasmine's eyes turned cold all of a sudden. "Felicity! Tell me the truth, what on earth is going on?"

Felicity didn't bother to explain. She took William's hand and got into the car.

William started the engine, but Steven obviously didn't want to back down. He stood in front of the car, blocking William's path.

William took out his cell phone coldly and called the police. He told them that his car was scratched. Besides, he also informed them that he had secured both the footage on the surveillance cameras and the suspect right at the crime scene.

Steven was caught off guard.

Steven felt as if he had thrown himself into a deep abyss. He knew he was in deep trouble!

William was so bold!

He couldn't believe that William reported this to the police!

William drove the car suddenly.

Without hesitation, Steven quickly dodged to one side.

He suddenly had an inexplicable fear. If he continued standing there, this good-for-nothing would actually run over him!

"We'll leave this matter to the police. Get the repair fees ready," William said and left with Felicity.

After William drove the car away from the underground parking lot, Felicity felt a little melancholy. She rolled down the window, letting the evening breeze blow on her face.

Her heated blood was also slowly cooled down by the soothing air.

She looked at William. There was an enigmatic emotion in her eyes.

She didn't know how to put her thoughts into words. She was really curious about the car.

She knew William's personality well. He was always a calm and restrained person.

He generally liked low-key, dull colors. Even his favorite colors were black and white.

However, this car was way too flamboyant for him. It was obviously not his style.

William knew what she was thinking. He smiled and explained, "My friend has never driven this car so he gives it to me. The color of this car is too bright; I'm not used to it. You'll drive the car next time."

"It's from a woman, isn't it?" Felicity asked in a faint voice.

The car was something a girl would like.

William reached out to pat her head, but she dodged his hand right away.

He had no choice but to add, "Don't you know that I have a rich friend? It's his. Don't overthink it."

Felicity was taken aback. "Is it the friend who picked you up in a Rolls-Royce last time?"

William neither nodded nor shook his head.

The two of them remained silent all the way back.

On the other hand, the Bai family was about to explode in anger.

How dared William humiliate the Bai family in public? He was such a brash jerk!

This was unforgivable!

And Felicity had been completely influenced by William!

Previously, she never dared to raise her voice at the Bai family whenever they picked on her.

However, she had been going against them repeatedly for that jerk!

"Humph, that car must be a gift from that mysterious man who gave them the villa. We'll not dwell upon this matter anymore! We need to focus on dealing with the Genuine Care Medical Center. When our family regains its long-lost glory in Qena City, that couple will definitely regret their attitude towards us!" Yasmine said coldly as she got into the car.

"Grandma, do I really have to pay that jerk one hundred thousand yuan?" Steven was so aggrieved, but he could not shed a tear.

Yasmine stared at him and replied, "Speaking of which, how dare you use the company's money to buy this car? Felicity was telling the truth, wasn't she? Do you ever use your brain before you act? I will use this to teach you a lesson: you have to pay William for the damage you cause! Don't make things difficult for me! I won't allow anyone to taint our family's reputation at this critical moment!"

William had already called the police. If this matter was not handled well, it would be a stain on the Bai family's reputation.

At this point, any accident could possibly lead to them losing the dealership with the Genuine Care

Medical Center. She would not allow any mistakes to happen at this moment!

Steven, who was standing beside her, almost crushed his teeth in anger!

That d*mned couple!

Steven thought, "Just wait. As soon as I complete this project successfully, I will have full control over the Bai family!"

When that happened, he would ensure the two of them suffer in a living h*ll every day!

"Well, there are five more days until we sign the contract with Genuine Care Medical Center. Go back immediately and count all our assets. Give me an estimated capital for our operational cost. We have to make a capital balance as soon as possible," Yasmine instructed.

Steven nodded in agreement.

Two days later, Felicity received a call to attend the family meeting organised by Yasmine.

This time, she was told that if she were to bring William again, she didn't have to attend any future meetings.

Felicity was dejected, but she could only accommodate their request and go to Yasmine's house alone.

As soon as she entered the house, everyone had already taken their seats.

Each of them looked extremely solemn.

When Yasmine saw Felicity, she snorted and said, "Now that everyone is here, let's start the meeting."

"Steven, you should report our family's capital first."

Steven stood up, holding a piece of paper in his hand, and said in a low voice, "After two days of research, we have a total capital of 50 million yuan. This includes all the money we can use, as well as the capital that can be mortgaged."

Felicity knew it well.

There was nothing much to be loaned in the Bai family. In order to maintain their usual daily operations, several companies had already put up their fixed assets as collaterals to the banks.

Yasmine suddenly stood up with a stern look on her face.

She added, "If we are going to take over this project and start the preliminary operation, we will need at least 200 million yuan!"

"So, we are facing an unprecedented problem. That is, we don't have money!"

She announced as she stared at Felicity.
