

My Dreamy Old Husband

Chapter 29

Every time he finished his push-up, he would give her a kiss. Once he was done with the push-ups, he did it with one arm.

Sophia remained motionless as she lay under him, lacking the courage to move even a muscle. She even felt his sweat from his body falling on her, drop by drop, when he did his push-ups.

His ragged breathing was next to her ear and full of the scent of strong masculinity, making a female like her feel something fluttering deep within her instinct and soul.

This... is alright as well. At least it's better than having sex with him, she prayed in her heart. Michael really has good stamina. I wonder why a domineering president like him would want such a strong physical strength.

Just like that, he did push-ups as he brought himself up and down above her. In the blink of an eye, he completed three sets with an average of twenty push-ups in each set.

After Michael completed his sets of push-ups, he remained in the same position as before—where he was above Sophia. She wondered whether she was seeing things when she noticed a shred of crimson hidden deep within his eyes after he had completed his workout.

I'm really scared that he might suddenly push himself on me... She volunteered to help. "Hubby, get up. Let me wipe your sweat..."

Upon hearing that, he rose to his full height and sat while she took his towel to help him wipe his sweat.

After working out, there was sweat appearing on Michael's face and body. As the sweat beads emerged, his whole body radiated the unique, wild scent that belonged to a strong man.

If they were to return to a million years ago when everyone were still apes, Michael would have been the leader of the pack. He was strong and domineering, irresistible to all females and causing them to be unable to resist their urge to have ape infants with him.

While holding her breath, Sophia carefully wiped his sweat while thinking, I'll persuade him to do a couple more sets of push-ups later. Once he has exhausted all of his strength, he would naturally be drained of energy to do other things.

As she was thinking with her head bowed, she didn't expect him to look down at her from his height. With a glance downward, he was able to see her 'mountains'. Her cleavage, which was deeply hidden under her clothes, could be vaguely seen and she had spent the entire year maintaining her figure as she was curvy in the appropriate parts.

His eyes shone with traces of his lust before he finally failed to hold himself back and pounded on her once again.

His pair of large hands had squeezed her body with strength, causing her to nearly cry in pain. However, he was totally unaware of her feelings; he felt that he was extremely strong and manly.

Perverted man! Didn't he say that he only wants to work out? As she scolded in her heart, she was forced to surrender herself to him. His part of perverted hands were all over her body. They were not gentle at all—his touches were so rough that she was almost injured.

As they kissed, Sophia was wailing inwardly, It's over. In the end, I still can't protect myself. I'm still going to have sex with him. Come to think of it, at least there isn't any eel here! So, this is better than at home! However, on a second thought, even if there is no eel, Michael will surely think of a thousand ways to torture me. After all, this is a gym, so he could search for any equipment that he wants here. On top of that, Audistin is a place where the wealthy can have their entertainment. Maybe the club next door has everything that he needs!

Upon having such thoughts, she felt her head, her ass, and even her whole body screaming in pain. Even before starting anything, she felt itchy everywhere on her body.

He not only used his tongue to flick hers; he even used his teeth to bite her tongue. He is indeed a pervert. Even his kisses are perverted! This is totally different from how it was in the dramas.

The kisses in dramas were romantic and sweet, but Michael's kisses were fierce—as if he was trying to swallow her raw, eat her flesh and drink her blood. She even suspected that his next step was to bite her arteries to drink her blood!

He placed Sophia on the yoga mat and pressed himself on her, attempting to give her all of the chromosomes he had collected throughout all these years.

She closed her eyes as she slowly relaxed. It's only a matter of time before I'll be bedded by him. It's better to end this right now to save me the trouble of continuously worrying about it. I just hope that he doesn't overdo this!

Nevertheless, the expected pounding never came. She opened her eyes and noticed that he had gotten up and left. "Hubby?"

Michael, who already had his clothes on, turned his head and shushed at her before saying, "I'm coming over now." After that, he switched off his Bluetooth earphone that he wore.

It turned out that he was speaking to someone on his Bluetooth earphone.

Sophia took her clothes to cover herself before asking in confusion, “Hubby, what’s wrong?”

His expression was dark. “Just some work-related issues. I’ll be back in a while.”

In her heart, Sophia was like a little girl skipping around with joy, but on the surface, she pretended to feel disappointed. “Be careful, then. Come back earlier.”

After Michael wore his clothes, he left without forgetting to close the door behind him. After all, his wife was still asleep naked inside the room.

Sophia felt relieved the moment he left. She then wore her clothes and stuck her pitiful tongue out to take a look at it. Her tongue felt so sore that it almost bled—as if she had just eaten eight or ten pounds of sugar cane! Michael, what a perverted man you! He doesn’t know how to be gentle to a woman! Of course, perverts do not know how to be gentle to women.

She then massaged her sore breasts that experienced torture before she quickly gathered her belongings and left the place with the intention of heading to the university, cinema, cafe, or the cyber cafe to hide for the rest of the day. At least she would be able to avoid him for today.

However, Michael didn’t go far—he merely had some work-related issue that he had to deal with. Professionals were able to win their matches from thousands of miles away. Since he had reached a level whereby those around him were experts and capable people, everything could be settled and arranged by making a few calls.

When he returned to the gym, Sophia had escaped.

However, when she arrived at the hall, she came across a commotion there and stayed to watch the scene.

She was not a person who enjoyed watching commotions, but this was something she couldn't miss—since it involved her ex-boyfriend!

Two hours ago, Kayla and Xyla had cancelled their memberships at Audistin and arrogantly declared to cancel the memberships of everyone in the Harper Family.

The manager, who was a shrewd person, knew that the Harpers had offended their boss's wife, so he had proceeded to cancel the memberships for them.

Usage of the Audistin membership card was applicable for clubs under the Audistin group. Therefore, once the membership was canceled, the card would be rendered ineffective in all Audistin clubs.

Hence, a lot of things happened as a result of this in the past two hours.

For instance, Richard would go to the horse-riding club every weekend. When he arrived there today, he was suddenly notified by Audistin that the horse-riding session he booked was cancelled and he had to remove the horses that he reared in the club within a certain timeframe to avoid being charged an hourly fee. He was also notified that all the clubs under Audistin would not provide any services to the Harper Family.

Mrs. Harper's yoga class in the Audistin health club was also cancelled. Of course, she was also denied entry to all of the Audistin clubs.

The most unfortunate person was Mr. Harper. He had originally agreed to play golf with a bunch of business partners at the golf course, which was located on the outskirts, and to discuss a business that was worth a hundred million as well.

However, when he arrived at the golf course, he was notified that he was no longer a member and could not enter any clubs under Audistin from now onward. Therefore, he was in a terribly awkward situation when he was outside and stopped from entering.
