

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 1546 – 1550

Chapter 1546

Fredmen said: “I’m wondering, the metaphysical things are true, but they are also macroscopic. For example, it may gradually affect the quality of luck, but it is unlikely to affect a person’s fertility in an instant. So I think that kid must have used some kind of slamming method.”

Yanzheng asked: “Sounding? What do you mean? Why do you say that?”

Fredmen explained: “This is like making magic. In addition to blindfolding, the most commonly used method for magicians is to make noises. Generally, when he points his right hand to show you, things are usually hidden in his left hand. When the hat is shown to you, things are usually hidden in the sleeves.”

Yanzheng nodded solemnly: “You go on.”

Fredmen hurriedly said again: “Look, Charlie seems to be engaged in metaphysics, but I think this grandson must have used some secret method to quietly poison us, but We were distracted when the poison was given, so we didn’t notice.”

Yanzheng suddenly thought of something. He straightened up and blurted out: “It makes sense! It makes sense! I have been thinking why two of my men had their necks choked by him, so they had muscle weakness. Now think about it. It is very likely that he quietly used poison on my men! Otherwise, if two top masters take good care of them, how can they become two wastes inexplicably?”

Yangang on the side was busy saying, “Second brother, if the grandson really poisoned us, then he must have an antidote! Does this mean that as long as we can get the antidote from him, there will it is possible to recover?”

“Yes!” Yanzheng also said immediately: “This kid must have a way to recover us! When we finish our business tomorrow, we will find a way to let him take out the antidote!”

When Fredmen heard this, he was immediately excited!

During this period of time, he has been troubled by the treatment of his roots, and he has even given up a bit these days.

But this does not mean that he is really willing to accept this status quo, but that he is really powerless.

If he can heal his own roots, he is willing to pay no matter how great the price is!

So, he hurriedly knelt on one knee, folded his fists on top of his head, and pleaded: “I am also Charlie’s victim. After suffering from this kid, if you two have the opportunity to get the antidote, please give me a chance to heal next!”

Yanzheng nodded slightly and said, “Mr. Willson rest assured, you know everything about us today, and we will not forget you when we get the antidote in the future!”

Fredmen said excitedly: “Second Lord, thank you so much! Your great kindness is unforgettable!”

Yanzheng gave a hum, and said to him: “Mr. Willson, it’s late, and you should go back to rest early. We will keep in touch with you about this matter, and we will notify you if we have any news.”

Fredmen nodded hurriedly, and said respectfully: “Second Lord, then I will leave first!”

As soon as Fredmen left, Philip hurriedly asked Yanzheng: “Second brother, what is your chance of winning and let the b@stard Wade hand over the cure?”

Yanzheng coldly snorted, “Did you not listen to Fredmen’s words? This kid is actually a liar who shows feng shui. He must be looking for money when he comes to Eastcliff to see his eldest brother. As long as he is looking for money, there is nothing to worry about. Yes, when we finish the board of directors tomorrow, I will directly use the money to hit him willingly to kneel down and call me Lord!”

Chapter 1547

Because of the strong cold air, the temperature in Eastcliff dropped sharply at night, and heavy snow fluttered in the sky.

Charlie received a push on his cell phone saying that Eastcliff had issued a blue Blizzard warning from today night to tomorrow day.

Charlie was wearing a single shirt and stepped out of the balcony of the guest room, thinking all his parents were in his mind.

Tomorrow, I'm going to visit my parents' grave.

This matter had been shelved in his heart for eighteen years, and he was always thinking about it.

When he was in deep thought, he suddenly heard Sara's voice: "Charlie, are you not cold with so little clothes?"

Charlie looked back. Sara didn't know when she had entered the room and came to the balcony door.

She hurriedly explained: "Excuse me, Charlie, I knocked on the door just now, and no one answered, so I pushed the door and came in by myself."

Charlie smiled slightly and nodded softly: "It's okay, what are you doing so politely between you and me?"

Suddenly, two red clouds appeared on Sara's pretty face.

She walked to Charlie and asked him: "Charlie, were you thinking about something just now?"

Charlie nodded: "I'm thinking about the past."

Sara gently touched his hand, and then held him without letting go. She said in gratitude, "Charlie, thanks to you for my father's condition, thank you for saving his life!"

Charlie said sincerely: "Sara, Uncle is a good brother of my father, and an elder I respect. I can't help but watch him seriously ill if I don't have the ability. This ability is naturally to save him."

"Yeah!" Sara nodded heavily, and said, "Charlie, how many days can you stay in Eastcliff this time? I won't accompany my father to the board meeting tomorrow and after sweeping the grave for Uncle Wade and Aunt An , Are you going back?"

Charlie said: "I still have some personal affairs the day after tomorrow, and I will go back after I'm done."

Sara's expression was a bit regretful and sad for a while, she raised her head, looked at him with clear and eager eyes, and asked, "Charlie, can't you stay for a few more days? It's the Chinese New Year at this sight, or you Just leave after the New Year at my house?"

Charlie chuckled: "There are still twenty days left during the Chinese New Year. If I never go back, I can't explain to your sister-in-law."

Sara said with a pretty face: "I don't admit that she is my sister-in-law, and you are not really my brother, you are the fiance I have identified since I was a child!"

Charlie shook his head helplessly and smiled: "Okay, what you say is what you say."

Suddenly, Sara felt a little disappointed and secretly said: "Every time I chat with Charlie, he always reminds me in various ways that he is married! But, doesn't he know that the life of his parents is greater than the sky? At least I After so many years of warning myself, why can't he be like me?"

Thinking of this, Sara couldn't help sighing, holding Charlie's hand, and couldn't help but use some strength, and said with a bit of sadness: "Charlie, you are the young master of the Wade family, and you are so capable, Willson in Aurous Hill, you cannot tolerate long. Sooner or later you have to return to Eastcliff."

Charlie was taken aback for a moment, and said calmly: "If I can come back, let's talk about it later."

That night, Charlie had an absurd dream.

In the dream, his parents did not die. He was still the young master of the Wade family, and he has grown up. He has attracted a lot of attention in Eastcliff, and he can call the wind and rain.

In his dream, he wore a decent suit, brought the bridegroom's corsage, and led a luxurious convoy to the super villa of Gu's family.

In the villa, Sara was wearing a holy white wedding dress, sitting on the bed in her boudoir, looking at herself with a flowery smile.

Then, a group of young men and women who they didn't know urged them to look for Sara's red shoes everywhere.

Chapter 1548

When he found Sara's red shoes and personally helped her put them on, the scene immediately flashed to the wedding scene.

The wedding in the dream is grand to the extreme.

Both Charlie's parents were there, with a happy and kind smile on faces.

When the wedding music sounded, Philip took Sara's hand, walked up to him, smiled and handed Sara's hand to him.

Afterwards, the two said their wedding vows, exchanged wedding rings, and kissed each other.

Then, the emcee asked Sara to turn her back to the bridesmaid and throw out her bouquet.

However, it was Claire who grabbed the bouquet!

However, Claire did not look happy when she grabbed the bouquet. On the contrary, her expression was very resentful...

Charlie's eyes met her, he couldn't help but slapped a sharp spirit, and suddenly opened his eyes, only to realize that it was just a dream.

He was shocked by the absurdity in the dream, and he was stunned for a few minutes before he gradually recovered.

Seeing that the sky outside the window was getting brighter, he sighed, got up to wash, and walked out of the room.

Downstairs, Lenan is preparing breakfast with the servant.

Philip is up early, sitting in the living room vigorously holding a cup of coffee, and reading the latest newspaper this morning.

There are not many people who still like to read newspapers these days.

Philip is one of them.

Seeing Charlie come downstairs, he immediately smiled and waved at him, and said with a smile: "Charlie, come!"

"OK Uncle." Charlie replied and walked over.

On the sofa, he sat beside Philip.

Philip handed him the newspaper in his hand, smiled and said, "Look at the front page."

Charlie took the newspaper and looked at the front page headline. There was a big line on it: "The chairman of the Gu Group is critically ill, and the Trillion Group may have no leader."

Charlie couldn't help but frowned, and said, "This newspaper is too irresponsible, right?"

Philip smiled slightly and said, "This must be the ghost of my two younger brothers. First let out the news that I am critically ill, and then let the stockholders and the market lose confidence in the Gu Group, and ask the securities institutions to lower their share price and Performance expectations, in that case, the Gu Group's share price will inevitably trigger a decline."

While speaking, Philip looked at his watch and smiled: "It's half past eight, and there's still an hour to open. By that time, the stock prices of all listed companies under the Gu Group will surely fall sharply, or even directly limit."

Charlie couldn't help frowning: "Uncle, they are also shareholders of the Gu Group. By doing this, isn't it a loss of their own interests?"

Philip shook his head and smiled: "For major shareholders, it doesn't matter if the stock price drops a bit."

After speaking, Philip explained: "Look, if the stock price drops because of the news that I am seriously ill now, the most anxious ones are retail investors and small shareholders. Seeing that they have less money, they will definitely come through various channels. Express dissatisfaction;"

"And the stock price falls because I am seriously ill. This pot is definitely for me to carry, so when the time comes, they can better incite other shareholders to force me to give way, because now the market is not at ease with me, only I gave way so they could breathe a sigh of relief."

"Once they successfully achieve their goals and kick me out of the board of directors, the stock price will rise back in time, so for the two of them, there is basically no actual loss. This trick is called killing with a knife."

Chapter 1549

After listening to Philip's explanation, Charlie understood that the second and third Gu family men's real purpose of manipulating the media to release this kind of news was.

He is also increasingly looking forward to what the two living eunuchs will think after seeing the radiant Philip when he arrives at the Gu Group.

At this time, Sara also walked down, saw her father and Charlie reading the newspaper, and asked curiously: "Dad, Charlie, what news are you reading? You so relish."

Philip smiled and said, "Your dad, I made headlines today."

“Really?” Sara hurried over, glanced at the title, and immediately said angrily: “This is too much, right? Even if the condition worsened before, it just needs to be hospitalized again, which is far from critical. What the media say is not responsible at all?”

Philip laughed and said, “You are in the entertainment industry yourself. Don’t you know the virtues of this private media? Chasing after the wind, listening to the wind is rain, and even talking nonsense. Isn’t this what they do best? Besides, this There must be someone behind it, or they would not publish such unverified news.”

Sara suddenly realized that, after thinking for a moment, she blurted out and asked, “Dad, did the second and third uncles do it?”

Philip nodded: “Apart from them, there will be no other people. All of this must be for today’s board of directors to build momentum and make me more passive then.”

After speaking, Philip said again: “Based on what I know about them, they will definitely invite media reporters to the scene today. They want to take pictures of my frail and dying illness and show them to the people all over the country!”

“This is too much!” Sara suddenly said angrily: “Then you will go over later, and directly tell the media face to face, that your illness has been cured, and they will be pissed off by then!”

Philip smiled and said: “I have greeted Liang White just now. Before today’s board of directors is over, no media reporters can enter the Gu Group building. After the meeting is over, the press conference will be held. The directors get off the hook.”

Liang White is Philip’s deputy and the person he trusts most in the Gu Group. He has personally cultivated him and is very reliable.

Lenan heard the dialogue and walked over and said, “Be loyal, or I will go with you today!”

Philip waved his hand: “Don’t come with me. The group already has a system, and family members are not allowed to interfere with work, and Sara is a public figures and it is not easy to get involved, so you two are waiting at home and let Charlie accompany me. I will go.”

When Lenan heard this, she nodded.

After dinner, Charlie and Philip shared a Rolls-Royce, and under the protection of the security team, went to the Gu Group.

These security personnel were hired by Philip from a top security company yesterday afternoon.

This time, he invested a huge amount of money to protect himself, and the safety of his wife and child, and he will never let anyone enter the room.

The convoy drove into the underground parking lot of the Gu Group Building.

Here, there is an elevator dedicated to the chairman, which can directly reach the top floor of the building from the underground parking lot.

Only Philip and his entourage are qualified to use this elevator, even Yanzheng and Yangang are not qualified.

Moreover, the entrance of the chairman's exclusive elevator in the underground parking lot is in a separate enclosed garage. In other words, not only is it impossible for ordinary people to use his dedicated elevator, even if they want to enter this enclosed garage, it is impossible.

After the elevator reached the 58th floor, it came to a completely enclosed office area for the chairman.

Chapter 1550

This area has a total of nearly one thousand square meters, including the chairman's office, lounge, private meeting room and fitness and entertainment rooms.

In this area, ordinary people have no chance to enter.

In other words, from the moment Philip entered the closed garage of the underground parking lot, he entered an environment where no one could disturb him, and the people who appeared here were his confidants.

After Philip brought Charlie and a group of bodyguards to his office, he immediately picked up the phone on the desk and said, "Let Liang come over."

Soon, a middle-aged man in his forties knocked on the door and came in.

When the man saw Philip, he was stunned. It took a long time to come back to his senses and blurted out: "Chairman, your expression today is so much better than before! Moreover, you feel better than before you fell ill... ...."

Philip nodded slightly and said with a smile: "The doctor told me that the tumor in my body has completely disappeared."

Liang White asked in surprise: "Really Chairman?! All the tumors in your body have disappeared?"

"Yes." Philip smiled indifferently: "From now on, I am a healthy person again."

"Great!" Liang White said excitedly, "This is simply a miracle!"

Philip nodded and smiled: "I think so too."

Liang White was very excited: "The chairman, the two vice-chairmen, and those directors are all discussing your condition in the conference room outside. Just after the stock market opened, all the stocks of our listed companies all fell by the limit. What else did they say? , If you don't give up the position of chairman, the stocks will definitely fall to the limit tomorrow, this is good! You can slap them in the face! Then officially announce to the people of the whole country that you have recovered!"

Philip smiled and said, "This is natural. Since they want me to be critically ill, then I will let them feel what it means to be completely disappointed!"

After that, he said again: "Liang, go and tell them that I will be there to preside over the meeting in five minutes!"

Liang White nodded quickly: “Okay Chairman, I will go now!”

After Liang left, Philip stood up and said to Charlie vigorously: “Charlie, come, with uncle, kill the enemy before the battle!”

Charlie nodded and smiled, and said, “Uncle, please you first.”

Philip laughed and took Charlie out of the office, and then stepped out of the chairman’s private office area.

In the large conference room on the 58th floor, Yanzheng and Yangang, brothers, had already made their sense.

Today they have made perfect preparations.

Not only did they get the support of some minority shareholders, but they also used this morning’s headlines to make the outside world think that the big brother Philip is about to die. Now the stock price has plummeted, and other minority shareholders are also in panic. And continue to fall.

Therefore, at this moment, the board members in the entire conference room have all fallen to the brothers.

Yanzheng had even thought out a specific implementation plan. After the eldest brother comes, he directly will throw the prepared newspaper in front of him, and then throw all the stock price drop lists at him.

Then, without waiting for him to explain, he immediately will ask the board of directors to vote again and recommend a new chairman on the grounds that the current chairman is incompetent for this important position!
