

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 2066 – 2070

Chapter 2066

Tianming asked again: “How is Hashimoto doing things? Is it pretty?”

Honor sneered and said, “It should be pretty. According to him, the car rolled down from a cliff of several hundred meters and burned into a pile of scrap iron. It is estimated that the people inside are all burnt to coke.”

Tianming said with satisfaction: “That’s good, that’s good!”

After that, he asked again: “By the way, before you came, did your grandfather doubt anything?”

Honor said: “He shouldn’t, but I’m not sure if he will doubt it in the future.”

Tianming sneered and said, “It’s okay, he has nothing to do later.”

Honor was overjoyed and hurriedly asked: “Dad, are you going to do something with Grandpa?”

Tianming said, “No, it can’t be so fast.”

Honor said with a worried expression: “Dad, don’t forget that when the old guy passed the position of Patriarch to Warnia, he said in public that as long as Warnia has no descendants, he must be the Patriarch of the Song family. Let Charlie inherit, and if we don’t quickly get rid of the old guy, don’t we mean making Charlie wedding dresses?!”

Tianming said: “If we start with the old guy now, then all of this will be too obvious. Warnia dies in a foreign land before, and the old man dies in Aurous Hill later. Even if we don’t leave any evidence, the outside world will think this is something. We did it!”

Honor asked nervously: “Then what?! Can’t you really wait for the old thing to invite Charlie into the Song family? In that case, we are all over! We are definitely not Charlie’s opponent!”

Tianming said: “Don’t worry about this. I have asked people to engage in a batch of neurological drugs used by U.S. agents. In the early stage after taking the drugs, they will be extremely obedient. Then the old guys will do what we say. At that time, we will directly let the old guy announce the abolition of the previous verbal agreement, and then announce that I will take over as the head of the family.”

Honor asked: “You just said that the drug can make the other party obey in the early stage. What about the middle and late stages? Will the drug fail?”

“No.” Tianming sneered: “After taking this medicine for a period of time, it can irreversibly destroy a person’s brain. Not only can it not be cured forever, but it can’t be found at all. The apparent symptoms are no different from Alzheimer’s. At that time, we can say that the old guy was irritated by Warnia’s death, so he has dementia.

Anyway, I would have become the head of the family and let him become dementia, which is good for us.

Honor smiled excitedly: “Dad! Your trick is really wonderful! Then we will raise the old thing as a mascot, and just arrange a few people to take care of him eating and drinking!”

“Yeah!” Tianming smiled sullenly, and said: “The old man called me just now, and asked me to come back as soon as possible. The medicines have been brought in through special channels. When Warnia’s funeral is over, I will find opportunities to feed him!”

Honor remembered something, and said, “Dad, the old guy still has a rejuvenating pill! Warnia got it from Charlie on her birthday and gave it to him. In case he takes that rejuvenating pill, everything will return to normal. What should we do? We may be in big trouble then!”

Tianming said coldly: “Honor, don’t be afraid! This matter, there is no turning back when you open the bow! For the Song family’s 200 billion assets, we must walk to the dark one by one, and the gods block and kill the gods and the Buddhas block to kill Buddhas!”

After all, Tianming said again: “In addition, if the Rejuvenation Pill can really reverse his brain damage, I will find a chance to give him some medicine, as long as we don’t reveal that we killed Warnia, don’t reveal that we gave him Once the old guy takes the medicine, no one will doubt us.”

After a pause, Tianming sneered and said, “Besides, what if they suspect it? Warnia is not killed directly by us. Who can convict us? All things must be evidence!”

Honor said: “You are right, as long as there is no evidence that we are behind the scenes, no one can help!”

Tianming coldly snorted: “The blame for this matter is that the old man is too partial! If the family is born and handed over to a female generation, he really treats me as a dish! This time, we will take the whole Take it back from the Song family! I am the son of the Song family and you are the grandson of the Song family. The Song family should have been ours!”

Chapter 2067

When Charlie left home, Claire was still soaking in the hot springs.

She didn’t know that her husband left from the hot spring in a bathrobe and said to get a drink. He had already taken a helicopter to the airport and then flew to Japan.

She waited and couldn’t wait for Charlie anymore. After coming out of the hot spring, she didn’t see his shadow in the living room, and she couldn’t help but wonder.

She picked up the phone and called Charlie, but it turned out that the phone was turned off.

This made her even more puzzled. When she returned to the bedroom, she didn’t find Charlie’s shadow, only a note that he left for her on the bedside table.

There was a line written on the note: “My wife, a friend is in danger, I will rush to save.”

After Claire finished reading it, she was shocked: “Save people?! Could it be that something terrible has happened?!”

Thinking of this, she hurriedly sent a voice to Charlie: “Husband, where did you go? What happened? Anyway, you must pay attention to safety!”

Tokyo, Japan.

The ninja of the Ito family took a helicopter and rushed to the mountainous area of Nishitama County in the shortest time.

Afterwards, the helicopter landed a few kilometers away from the foot of the mountain, and ten ninjas dressed in black filed out and rushed towards the mountain.

The reason why the helicopter was not allowed to fly directly in was because Nanako was afraid of throwing grass.

She is similar to Charlie’s opinion. Warnia is likely to be murdered. So if you let them go in a helicopter to search with great fanfare, if Warnia is not dead, her people will disturb the other party again, which will cause more trouble.

However, the mountains in Nishitama County stretch for hundreds of kilometers, and the winding road alone is tens of kilometers long, so they can only hide in the dark and walk along the winding road to search for clues.

Fortunately, there were more ninjas dispatched by the Ito family this time, and ten ninjas came out, starting from the entrance to the mountain to inspect all the clues.

While they were searching, Nanako also took a helicopter from home to Narita Airport.

Two o’clock in the morning Tokyo time.

Since Honor went to the TMPD to report to the police, a large number of police officers have been ordered to set off to search for Warnia’s whereabouts.

To the director of the TMPD, the news of Warnia’s disappearance in Tokyo was like a nightmare.

A few days ago, an unprecedented war broke out in the city. Various assassinations emerged one after another. Many wealthy and powerful people died in a series of violent incidents, and even shocked the whole world.

Not only has the world laughed at Tokyo's public security issues, but it has also made the TMPD lose face in front of the world.

Finally, it was restored as before, and public order was approaching peace, but who would have thought that another well-known foreign entrepreneur lost contact in Tokyo!

The Song Group has a total market value of nearly 200 billion RMB. As the chairman of the Song Group, Warnia Song is a proper business elite no matter where she goes to any country.

But it was this business elite who lost contact in Tokyo, and according to reports from her family, it was probably an accident!

The director of the TMPD felt like a man on his back. If Warnia really died in Tokyo, then Tokyo would not ask for it anymore!

So he immediately rushed to the TMPD to supervise the battle and sent thousands of police officers to search for Warnia's whereabouts.

As the members of the Ito family, the TMPD also used surveillance video to trace all clues before Warnia's disappearance.

Moreover, the TMPD could directly access all the surveillance cameras in Tokyo, so they quickly found relevant clues and locked Warnia's accident to Nishitama County.

Chapter 2068

The police officers of the TMPD don't care about anything.

They directly sent hundreds of police officers to drive to Nishitama County, intending to block all the roads into and out of the mountains. At the same time, the TMPD also sent six police helicopters to the mountains of Nishitama County in order to find Warnia's whereabouts as soon as possible.

Nanako quickly got the news, so she immediately ordered the ninjas she sent out to keep low-key and try not to have any direct contact with the TMPD.

Tokyo time, half-past two in the morning.

The ninja of the Ito family, after passing through several mountains, smelled of burnt near the incident that had been cleaned up by the murderer.

Then, with this smell, they found the valley all the way down.

Along the way, they found the body of Warnia's assistant Swallow who was thrown out of the car. It was broken and horrible.

They immediately passed the news to Nanako. Nanako was shocked and immediately ordered them: "Check if the face is recognizable, and then search the Internet for Warnia's photos to see if it is the same person!"

After the ninja identified the body, he said to Nanako: "Miss, this corpse shouldn't belong to Miss Song. Let's continue searching!"

Nanako breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly said, "Go down and take a look!"

The ninja said: "Miss, I have something to tell you."

Nanako hurriedly said, "Okay, you say."

The leading ninja said: "This cliff, at least a few hundred meters in height, we have only just reached halfway down. From the body of the female corpse just now, it can be seen that when the vehicle rolled and fell, it received a huge impact and the huge inertia generated by the roll. , So the people inside will probably not survive."

"Moreover, the more we go down, the more we can smell the scorching smell of burn, which proves that the vehicle spontaneously ignited after falling to the bottom of the valley, so the possibility of surviving is even smaller. Even the top ninja, in this case, I am afraid. It's hard to get out..."

Nanako felt tight and hurriedly said, "I see, you go down to see the situation first, and report to me in time!"

The headed ninja said: "Miss, our mobile phone signal is very unstable now. If we go further down, we may not find any signal. We may temporarily lose contact for a while. Don't worry. Once we find a clue, We will climb up immediately and report back to you!"

Nanako said immediately: "Okay! Go and see what's going on. If you find Miss Song's body, tell me immediately, if you can't find the body, then Miss Song is likely to be alive and around. Search hard!"

"OK, lady, going down now!"

Immediately, ten ninjas jumped down quickly like parkour masters.

This group of people still have excellent eyesight in the middle of the night, and they are very quick to reach out. On the steep cliffs and slopes, they can still find their footing safely, quickly and accurately, and they will soon reach the bottom of the valley inch by inch.

At the bottom of the valley at this time, Warnia's commercial vehicle had already burned out.

A winter's snow accumulated in the valley ensured that the fuel leaked from commercial vehicles did not cause a mountain fire, but even so, the snow that burned while burning still gathered into a creek below.

There were two charred corpses in the commercial vehicle that had been burned into a pile of scrap iron.

The corpse had almost turned into carbon dust, and black carbon chips would fall as soon as the wind blows. If you touch it with your hands, it is likely to turn into a mass of black dust.

Through the outline, it can be determined that there are two bodies in the car, and they are a man and a woman.

However, the female corpse was completely unidentifiable.

One of the ninjas sighed: "Boss, people are already burnt like this, and the god Amaterasu can't save him. Let's go up and find a signal to send the information."

The headed ninja was about to nod his head, and suddenly saw a trace of an anomaly on the ground through the weak light.

He immediately lay on the ground and smelled it, then touched the ground with his hand, feeling the different degrees of hardness in different places on the ground, and exclaimed: "This is a string of fresh footprints! Someone is still alive!"

Chapter 2069

Tokyo time, 2:50 in the morning.

Charlie's private plane landed at Narita Airport.

He didn't take anyone along this time, and rushed to Tokyo alone.

This way, because there is only a wireless network on the plane, there is no communication network, so he has been connected to the wireless network on the plane.

He always stared at Warnia's profile picture in WeChat, looking forward to her message.

However, she never gave him any feedback.

After flying for more than two hours, Charlie was very anxious, and he became more and more uncomfortable.

He would always involuntarily imagine the worst result: If Warnia really died, what should he do?

This time he came, although he brought the Rejuvenation Pill, but although the Rejuvenation Pill is magical, it does not have the effect of bringing back the dead to life in the true sense.

If people are really gone, eating more rejuvenating pills will not help!

In the Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures, although there are records about higher-level pill, the information is too vague, Charlie can't understand it at all, and doesn't have the ability to realize it.

Therefore, he can only pray in his heart, praying that Warnia is still alive.

Or, even if she only has the last breath, she can be saved by him!

After getting off the plane, Charlie passed through customs at the fastest speed.

Later, he saw that Nanako was already waiting at the customs exit.

Seeing him, her heart was full of joy, and she ran towards him in threes or twos, her eyes full of excitement and admiration and said: "Master, you are here..."

Charlie nodded, and asked her, "Nanako, have your people found out?"

Nanako hurriedly said: "The ninja I sent out just gave me feedback. They said that they had found the vehicle in which Miss Song was traveling. Three bodies were found at the scene, two women and one man..."

"what?!"

Charlie felt a little bit in his heart and blurted out: "Has the identity of the corpse been confirmed?"

Nanako quickly explained: "The male body is Miss Song's driver. The other two female bodies, one of which has been confirmed to be not Miss Song herself, and one female body. The co-pilot in the car has been burned beyond recognition and cannot be identified. , But because this female corpse was sitting in the co-pilot, I guess she might not be Miss Song herself."

Charlie hurriedly asked again: "Then there is no one else at the scene? If there is no one else at the scene, where did Warnia go? Could this be the same corpse that was burned?"

Nanako said again: "That's Master. My ninja told me that fresh footprints were found at the scene. Someone should have escaped before the vehicle spontaneously combusts."

Speaking, Nanako sighed: “The ninja told me that this incident was very unbelievable, because the scene was too tragic. The commercial vehicle fell from a cliff several hundred meters high and spontaneously ignited. In this case, even a ninja can hardly survive, but that person has survived and has the ability to act. It is a miracle among miracles!”

Charlie breathed a sigh of relief when he heard this!

It seems that the person who survived and escaped should be Warnia herself.

Chapter 2070

Warnia must have relied on the pill that he gave her, so she was able to save her life under such treacherous conditions.

So Charlie hurriedly asked again: “Nanako, have your people found Warnia’s whereabouts?”

Nanako shook her head and said, “Now they are tracking the traces left by Miss Song, but they have not found where she is, but I believe that if she is alive, they will be able to find her.”

After speaking, Nanako said again: “Oh yes Master, a large number of police officers have been sent to Nishitama County to search through the TMPD. I believe they are also looking for Miss Song’s whereabouts, and they have many police officers. Helicopters are more suitable for fast and large-scale search and rescue. I believe that Miss Song’s whereabouts will be found soon.”

Charlie shook his head solemnly and said, “The reason why Warnia suffered from accidents, in my opinion, must be someone assaulting her. If the TMPD finds her whereabouts, it must be impossible to hide this matter from behind. I’m afraid the other party will come back then.”

After that, Charlie hurriedly asked her: “Nanako, is the helicopter ready?”

Nanako nodded and said, “It’s on the helipad, ready to go!”

“Okay, hurry to the place where the incident happened as soon as possible!”

.....

The helicopter soon roared from Narita Airport, traversed half of Tokyo city, and headed straight for Nishitama County.

At this time, Nishitama County, which had always been peaceful, suddenly became bustling.

Thousands of police officers and special operations team members from the TMPD swarmed in, and several police helicopters circulated the mountains with high-power searchlights.

Secretly, the ninja of the Ito family was in the valley, following the traces left by Warnia.

After all, Warnia is not a practitioner, let alone a master, so she can't hide her movement at all.

The ninja is very clever. While chasing the traces left by Warnia, he did not forget to order people to eliminate the traces left by Warnia little by little.

In this way, no one can find the clue left by her.

Even if someone from the TMPD found the completely damaged business car, they could not find her dead or alive.

In this way, it is possible to ensure that Warnia will not be discovered by others.

The TMPD was crowded with people, and there were police helicopters searching high in the sky, so it didn't take long for them to find the commercial vehicle.

Afterwards, several police helicopters drove towards the valley where the accident occurred, and twenty or thirty special forces with live ammunition came down from the helicopters.

When these special forces came, they immediately protected the scene tightly.

They checked the scene for the first time and confirmed that there were two deceased persons in the car. Then they traced the location of the commercial vehicle upwards and found the body of Warnia's assistant Swallow halfway up the mountain.

So their person in charge immediately reported to the headquarters via radio: "We have found the scene of the incident. The vehicle matches the one on the video surveillance. Three bodies were found on the scene. One of them is identified as Swallow a woman next to Warnia. The other two bodies have been completely carbonized and can only be identified as a man and a woman, but the identity of the woman cannot be confirmed at all."

The commander-in-chief at the scene hurriedly asked on the radio: "Are there any other clues found at the scene? You have only found three bodies now, but we found from surveillance video that when the commercial vehicle left the hotel, there were a total of four people, one of them is a driver, one of the other three is Warnia, and the other two are her assistants. It is impossible to have only three bodies!"

The person in charge of the special forces said: "It is true that only three bodies are at the scene, and judging from the tragic degree of the accident, there is no survivor, and no signs of surviving are found at the scene."

The commander-in-chief said in a puzzled voice: "This is not right! Four people got in the car, and only three are left after the accident. Where did the other one go?"
